

10. How will my school provide good teaching for my child and extra support when needed?

The school will provide good teaching for your child and extra support when needed.

- Quality First Teaching with Continued Professional Development and Training.
- Staffing arrangements – additional support from Teaching Assistants when necessary.
- Learning mentor and pastoral team to support pupils with social and emotional needs.
- Play therapist.
- Removing barriers to learning and making reasonable adjustments to ensure inclusion.
- We will evaluate provision.
- School data - Termly tracking of attainment and progress, including Pupil Progress meetings.
- Assessment and Review processes.
- Advice from Specialised professionals.
- Appropriate Transition is in place.
- EP and PSS to carry out specialist assessments.
- Use of the Maths and Language and Literacy Toolkit.
- Intervention groups and their outcomes
- Differentiation
- Small group opportunities and some 1:1 where needed.